

FILIPPO MARZATICO

CINEMATOGRAPHER

PROFILE

Filippo Marzatico is an Italian cinematographer born in Trento. A graduate in Classics from the University of Bologna, he trained at Rosencrantz & Guildenstern in Bologna and studied cinematography at Rome's Centro Sperimentale di Cinematografia from 2018 to 2020, under Giuseppe Lanci. His work spans fiction, documentaries, commercials and music videos, including Simone Bozzelli's Amateur and Federico Dematté's Inchei (Best Film and Best Director), both presented at Venice Critics' Week. In 2022, he became a partner in Amartia Film. In 2026, he shot Anima di vetro, directed by Fabio Schifino and produced by Noctua.film, and Wolf, directed by Nancy Camaldo and produced by Elfenholz Film GmbH. Both are currently in post-production.
